

Product Change Notification—PCN001231

Sep 15, 2026

Dear Valued Customer,

We would like to inform you that Moxa has established a standardized painting color for the Moxa logo as a company-wide standard. As part of this standardization, the new painting color will be applied to the Moxa logo on the front panels of rackmount products. The new painting process has successfully passed the required reliability testing and is intended to ensure consistent brand color and product quality.

This change does not affect the product's dimension, functionality, performance, or usability.

What will change?

The color of the Moxa logo:
